

The NOAA Twin Otter (N56RF) arrived in Barrow 30 Aug. In preparation for the start of the aerial component of BOWFEST, today was spent loading gear into the plane, testing survey equipment, and going through a safety briefing. No survey was conducted due to a shortage of aviation fuel in Barrow. The BOWFEST aerial survey team is on standby until fuel becomes available.