Tuesday, 29 March Workshop in Treadell Ballroom

0800-0845: Registration in Treadell Ballroom

0830-0900: Coffee

0900-1000: Part I: The blob and salmon survival

Introduction (Burke/Beckman)

- General format
- Activities and Expected outcomes/products

Regional background

- Moss/Orsi? – The blob and Alaska
- Trudel or ?? – The blob and CA
- Peterson – The blob and OR/WA
- Wells – The blob and CA

Wainwright and Beckman – Tom's 'movie' of ocean conditions, with annotation.

1000-1030: Coffee Break

1030-1200: The blob versus your forecasts – what's the score?

A chance for individuals to provide a slide or two, showing how the anomalous conditions may have affected forecasts or forecasting models. We will ask a handful of people to show slides, but welcome additional slides by anyone!

1230-1400 LUNCH BREAK (could well involve beer)

1400-1530 Part II: The large-scale picture.

Exercise: Mapping the blob onto the salmonscape – spatial and temporal patterns of effects on adult size and abundance

1530-1600: Coffee/Beer Break

1600-1615: Wrap up of Activity

1615-1700: Next steps – Basecamp, opportunities for collaborations across regions and surveys, and future meetings
